

The Esformes CHABAD CENTER

FAMILY/YOUTH PROGRAM GUIDE

2019-2020

What is Chabad?

IMAGINE a place where every person feels at home. Imagine a place where children play, learn, and develop their identities; where young adults and seniors share their wisdom; where parents transmit the joys and beauty of our heritage to the next generation.

IMAGINE a place where learning and laughter, sacred and secular, spiritual and physical, come together in an inviting atmosphere of warmth and belonging.

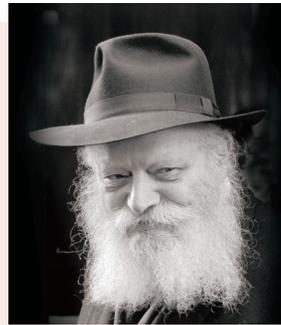

YOU HAVE JUST IMAGINED THE CHABAD HOUSE.

When creating the Chabad movement that you see today, over 3,000 Chabad centers in more than 65 countries, the Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneerson of righteous memory, was motivated by his profound love for every Jew and all mankind. Chabad Houses all over the world follow the central teaching of our Torah, as was always promoted by the Lubavitcher Rebbe – that all Jews are really one soul.

The word “Chabad” is a Hebrew acronym for Wisdom, Comprehension and Knowledge. The movement’s system of Jewish philosophy teaches understanding and recognition of the creator, the role and purpose of creation, and the importance and unique mission of each creature.

Chabad is dedicated to providing every Jew regardless of background, philosophy or level of commitment, an open door environment for strengthening and enhancing Jewish family life. Chabad serves individuals and families looking for an anchor and non-judgmental, accepting, personalized Jewish experience.

Chabad offers Judaism with a smile, and a home away from home for everyone who walks through its doors.

“When Jews from various locations meet...they are not separate entities who happened to meet by chance. Quite the contrary; they are one entity, one people who just happen to be dispersed, and when they meet their inner truth is revealed – that they are one people.”

-The Rebbe, August 19, 1976

YOUNG ADULTS

Bat Mitzvah Club

A Jewish girl's Bat Mitzvah birthday reflects a major turning point in her life. This club emphasizes that a Bat Mitzvah is a process, not a self-contained event that transpires in one day.

Our focus is to challenge and stimulate our members, encourage the girls to learn more about this unique time in their lives, and help them gain new perspectives on their positions as females, as adults, and as Jews. Members enjoy a combination of learning and fun through regular meetings, special programs and hands-on activities and projects!

Judaism's Gift to the World

How Major Jewish Ideas Have Become Universal Values

Once considered preposterous, many of Judaism's revolutionary teachings are today's universal values that are taken for granted. The history of the gradual transition of attitudes on values is as instructive as it is fascinating. An analysis of Jewish contributions past and present allows us to define ways in which Judaism can continue serving as a beacon of light and wisdom for all humanity.
