WHAT IS Chabad?

IMAGINE a place where every person feels at home. Imagine a place where children play, learn, and develop their identities; where young adults and seniors share their wisdom; where parents transmit the joys and beauty of our heritage to the next generation.

IMAGINE a place where learning and laughter, sacred and secular, spiritual and physical, come together in an inviting atmosphere of warmth and belonging.

YOU HAVE JUST IMAGINED THE CHABAD HOUSE.

When creating the Chabad movement that you see today, over 3,000 Chabad centers in more than 65 countries, the Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneerson of righteous memory, was motivated by his profound love for every Jew and all mankind. Chabad Houses all over the world follow the central teaching of our Torah, as was always promoted by the Lubavitcher Rebbe – that all Jews are really one soul.

The word “Chabad” is a Hebrew acronym for Wisdom, Comprehension and Knowledge. The movement’s system of Jewish philosophy teaches understanding and recognition of the creator, the role and purpose of creation, and the importance and unique mission of each creature.

Chabad is dedicated to providing every Jew regardless of background, philosophy or level of commitment, an open door environment for strengthening and enhancing Jewish family life.

Chabad serves individuals and families looking for an anchor and non-judgmental, accepting, personalized Jewish experience.

Chabad offers Judaism with a smile, and a home away from home for everyone who walks through its doors.

“When Jews from various locations meet...they are not separate entities who happened to meet by chance. Quite the contrary; they are one entity, one people who just happen to be dispersed, and when they meet their inner truth is revealed – that they are one people.”

-The Rebbe, August 19, 1976

We have always been a nation of positivity and optimism. We extend wishes of health to our community, and may we be able to enjoy the enclosed monthly celebrations and activities.

The son of Jewish mobster, Barney "Sugie" Sugarman, Myron worked as a manager for Meyer Lansky's organisation operating slot machines in the 70's. He will tell the story of the Jewish Mob and their remarkable contributions to the betterment of the Jewish people. They fought the American Nazi party in the 30's and supplied arms, cash and illegal weapons to both the Hagana and Irgun in the struggle for Israel's independence.
